

The Annual Elizabeth Gibby Osborne Lecture: Celebrating Oncology Nurses, 2010

Tuesday, May 4, 2010

3:00p.m.

The Cancer Institute of New Jersey's Auditorium A

~Welcome & Opening Remarks

Margaret Joyce, PhD, RN, AOCN
Interim Chief Nursing Officer

~ Meg Brown, Guest Speaker

Author and renowned speaker tells a spellbinding story with humor and insight, as she shares the secrets of her survival from a nearly fatal bout with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma. Nurses have the ability to enhance the mind, strengthen the spirit, and save the soul. Meg will share her six key attributes for survival – attributes which can help you tackle any challenge you may face. These six being EXPERTISE, POSITIVE ATTITUDE, LOVE, FAITH, EXERCISE, AND LUCK.

~Presentation of 2010 Nursing Recognition Scholarships

~Reception to Follow

RSVP on the Web at: www.cinj.org/education/nursing/NursingEducation

Further Information: Contact Nursing Education 732-235-8784 or nursinged-cinj@umdnj.edu