

PATIENT EDUCATION

CANCER TREATMENT

How to Make Informed Choices about Standard Care and Clinical Trials

someday
is today

LEUKEMIA &
LYMPHOMA
SOCIETY
fighting blood cancers

Please join us for a patient/caregiver education program
With a Patient and Healthcare Professional Panel Discussion!

Date: Tuesday, April 28, 2015

Time:

11:00 am – 11:30 am Registration & Refreshments

11:30 am - 1:00 pm Program

Location: Steeplechase Cancer Center
Third Floor Conference Room
30 Rehill Ave
Somerville, NJ 08876

Complimentary light lunch will be served!

Featured Speakers:

Kathleen Toomey, MD
Hematologist/Oncologist and Medical Director
Steeplechase Cancer Center

Siby Varughese, RN, MA, OCN, CCRP
Oncology Research Manager
Steeplechase Cancer Center

Topics covered:

- Steps to take to help you make treatment decisions
- Questions to ask about benefits and risks of standard treatments and treatments under study in clinical trials
- How new blood cancer treatments are developed and approved
- How to sort out the myths from the facts about clinical trials
- How to locate clinical trials that may be right for you
- How The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society can help

Pre-registration for this free program is required.

Please contact 1-888-637-9584 (1888-MD-RWJUH) or visit www.rwjuh.edu (Classes and Events/cancerprograms) to register for the program. For more information, assistance for people with disabilities, or grievances, please contact Gina Londino, LLS Patient Access Manager, at 908-956-6608 or Gina.Londino@lls.org.

Supported by grants from:

In collaboration with:

