BioCONNECT

A Science Teacher Workshop

An integrated curriculum supplement that enhances learning by encouraging students to transfer their knowledge of biology and genetics to real-life situations using breast cancer as the context.

Tuesday, March 27, 2018

from 8:30am to 3:30pm

(continental breakfast and lunch provided)

@ MEADOWLANDS ENVIRONMENTAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE

ONE DeKORTE PLARK PLAZA LYNTHURST, NJ

"The curriculum design allows for use in multiple classes; AP Biology, Biology and is easily modified for IEPs."
- BioCONNECT Teacher

"Decoding Cancer" featuring BioCONNECT is a ground-breaking collection of standards-aligned interactive classroom resources created by a visionary group of breast cancer advocates, experts, and educators - the Val Skinner Foundation, the LIFE Center at Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey in collaboration with the Rutgers School of Public Health, and Discovery Education. Decoding Cancer facilitates meaningful discussions among high school teachers, students, and families through comprehensive digital resources. An innovative and interactive high school biology and genetics education program featuring the BioCONNECT (Biology of Cancer, Online Education Connecting Teens) curriculum, Decoding Cancer enhances science literacy and increases cancer education and awareness among youth.
